

July 2022

Message from the President

The end of the financial year is upon us.

We have had a busy month on StepBridge with our usual sessions and the introduction of the All Around Australia Red Point Event on Sunday afternoons. This is being well supported and we hope that through the winter months especially that more players will join us for a 27 board tournament every Sunday at 2.30pm AEST.

Grafton Bridge Club held their Congress with us during the month and had 28 tables participate. We have a StepBridge congress coming up Saturday 16th July and I hope that you will all enter and share in the great cash prizes on offer.

We had almost 10,000 players participate in May and June looks like similar numbers.

A reminder of our Special General Meeting being held on 11th July, Reserve your spot if you would like to attend. Refer to the Secretary's instructions.

Life continues to be a joy in Turkey I will write up some things that I hope are of interest in the Diary.

Happy Bridging

Message from the Treasurer

Just a reminder to everyone. If you want to purchase participation points, please do this via the shopping trolley function on the Information and Registration page. The advantage to you is that your points are credited straight away - no reason to panic that you can't play. You will immediately receive an email with payment instructions and a unique reference number. If you pay this way, everything should happen automatically, no need for manual processing at our end. Please don't use old reference numbers which might pop up in your banking page, every payment has its own reference. Also, please only pay in the $ multiples indicated on the order page. If you are paying over the counter at a bank or credit union, please insist that they include this reference number or we have no way of identifying the payment as being for you.

If you are still getting reminders and think the payment below belongs to you, please send a copy of the bank receipt to suzi@stepbridge.com.au.

Cookery Corner

Ginger Stir-fry Fish

Ingredients

1 large white fish, cut in half and rolled in cornflour

Bunch bok choy

10 snow peas, cut in chunks

1 large carrot, julienne thinly

½ zucchini, julienne thinly

Handful of spinach (I buy packet of frozen spinach, it comes in little balls and is perfect)

Grated ginger, about 2 teaspoons

Grated garlic, 2 large cloves (I do the ginger & garlic on the microplane, it's easier)

Chopped parsley

1 teaspoon of fish sauce mixed with 1 teaspoon of Sugar

Directions

1. 2 tablespoons of extra virgin olive oil in a pan, add the ginger and garlic for a few minutes
2. Remove the ginger and garlic, put the fish in the pan, simmer gently for a few minutes, adding wee bit more oil if necessary
3. Take out the fish. In the pan, add the bok choy, snow peas, carrot, zucchini and spinach, and parsley.
4. Add a teaspoon of sesame oil (if dont have any, add more extra virgin olive oil).
5. Simmer gently for 10 minutes, tossing now and again. Add the sauce.
6. Layer the vegies and pop the fish on top.
7. You can add some chilli (I don't eat chilli, so that's up to you).

Fruit Sponge

Ingredients

4 Large Eggs - whatever the eggs weigh, weigh the same for Self Raising Flour, Sugar & Butter.

Tablespoon of lemon juice.

8 blood plums

Directions

1. Grease a dish.
2. Mix everything together well, except the fruit.
3. Pour mixture into the dish. Halve the fruit and layer skin up all over.
4. Cook in oven 180 degrees for 50 - 60 minutes.
5. Serve with hot custard, ice cream or cream. Also lovely cold, for afternoon tea.

Holiday Blogs

The weather here continues to be unsettled and unseasonably wet. Despite this we have had a busy time.

Several days in Istanbul with lunch on the shores of the Bosphorus Strait and a visit to the Grand Bazaar and the famous Taksim Square.

We travelled to Çanakkale and spent several days with friends. I went to the beach determined to swim. Remembering the 2 years I lived on the shores of the Aegean Sea where we swam every day. This experience was not the pleasant tepid experience of the past. The water temperature was freezing cold. If it was not for my stubborn determination to swim I would not have got past dipping my toe in the water. However we had a glorious day at the beach and I can boast that I swam 3 times despite the freezing cold water.

On our journey back to Duzce we went to Gallipoli or Gelibolu as it is called here in Turkey. To stand where history and legend and human sacrifice stories have shaped our history. It was amazing. It was a very quiet day and we were the only ones there at the time. I played "And the Band Played Waltzing Matilda" and contemplated the futility of war and the needless sacrifice of so many. All in all it was an incredibly emotional day. The significance of including the bridge pic is to tell you is The 1915 Çanakkale Bridge, also known as the Dardanelles Bridge, is a road suspension bridge in the province of Çanakkale in northwestern Turkey. The largest suspension bridge of its type in the world 3.7 kilometres long, with a huge toll of 275 turkish lira ONE WAY.

We are building a house in the middle of a forest here in Duzce. The land clearing is complete, but the start of the build has been delayed by the weather. I am constantly reminded of the terrors of bushfires in Australia and wonder to myself the merits of building in the middle of this beautiful location. Hope you like the photos.

Knitting and Crocheting

A couple of our Tournament Directors have been hard at work in the knitting and crocheting department. Antonina Hayles (TDNina) has knitted the blue beanies and pullover, while Cassandra Mitchell (TDCassie) has been busy creating crocheted Christmas Ornaments for the grandchildren.

We had a very successful Congress, attracting 112 players, who by all accounts thoroughly enjoyed their game of bridge. We would like to thank Tournament Directors Julie Jeffries & Chris Larter, and all participants for a great day of bridge. It was a wonderful competitive day and we would like to congratulate the following winners ...

A guy walks into a lumberyard and asks for some two-by-fours. The clerk asks, "How long do you need them?"

The guy answers, "A long time. We're gonna build a house."

My Kid: I feel like you're always making up rules and stuff.

Me: Like what?

My Kid: Like if I don't clean my room a portal will open and take me to another dimension.

Me: Well that's what happened to your older brother.
